Dear Sir:

Some time ago we had a letter from you in which you offered to exchange with us Vol. XVIII, Nos. 1 and 3, Vol. XIX, No. 2, or Vol. XX, No. 2 of THE AMERICAN JOURNAL OF ARCHAEOLOGY, for Vol. XVII, No. 1.

We promptly sent you the number you desired, and trust that it reached you .

Now all three of the numbers you offered us in exchange are getting scarce, and we should be glad to receive any one of them in exchange and purchase the remaining two numbers if you care to make such an arrangement.

Hoping to hear from you at your convenience, I am

Very truly yours,

Mitchell Carroll

Mr. Mitchell Carroll, Editor,
The American Journal of Archaeology,
The Octagon, Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:-

In response to your letter of March 28th I have sent you, under separate cover, the numbers concerning which you write. Please pardon my not having acknowledged receipt of the previous copy of the Journal which you so kindly sent me. If you could now let me have in addition a copy of Volume VIII (1904) No. 1, and of the Bulletin Volume I, No. 1, I should greatly appreciate it as this will complete a set we have recently had given to us.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.

Dear Sir:

Kindly discontinue sending 'Art and Archaeology' to our library. Our President turns over his copy to us, and our Library funds are unfortunately too limited to permit us to do what we should very much like to do - to give the support to your periodical which it deserves.

Very respectfully yours,

SPH/E

Gentlemen:

In 1924 we received Nos. 1 and 2 of the American Journal of Archaeology, Vol. XXVIII, but not Nos. 3 and 4.

Your periodical has been sent to us for a number of years as an Exchange, and I am at a loss to understand its non-arrival. May I ask you to look into the matter and let me have a word from you?

Very truly yours,

Secretary
